

MOU: Regional Economic Development Collaboration

Between the municipalities of Moncton, Dieppe and Riverview

- The Cities of Moncton, Dieppe and the Town of Riverview, as the urban centre of Southeast New Brunswick, agree to collaborate and cooperate on areas of mutual interest as it pertains to regional economic development.

- Moncton, Dieppe and Riverview agree to function as one voice to government on issues related to regional economic growth. In addition, the municipalities agree to collaborate on a regional economic development strategy.
- The Cities of Moncton and Dieppe and the Town of Riverview commit to collaboratively growing the regional economy and to increase the regional tax base.
- It is the aim of the municipalities to achieve economic growth via:
  - New investment attraction and joint regional marketing and promotion (including ONB and other potential partners)
  - Job growth from the existing employer base and
  - Launching local entrepreneurial start-ups.
