

Opening Remarks

Good evening everyone,

It's a pleasure to welcome you to Town Hall as we recognize an outstanding group of young people from Girl Guides in Riverview. I'd like to acknowledge the leaders, families, and friends who have supported them—your role in their journey is so important.

Girl Guides helps young women build confidence, leadership skills, and a strong connection to their community. Tonight, we celebrate not just achievements, but dedication, growth, and service.

Lady Baden-Powell Award (Guides)

We will begin with the Lady Baden-Powell Award, the highest honour a Guide can earn.

This award represents years of commitment, personal growth, and leadership. These recipients have challenged themselves and set a wonderful example for others.

It is my honour to present the Lady Baden-Powell Award to:

1. Rose Lutes
2. Olivia Hansen
3. Kate Blades
4. Kimmie Blades
5. Yaretzi (YA-RET-ZEE) Robles-Smith

Canada Cord (Pathfinders)

Next, we recognize the Canada Cord, the highest award for Pathfinders.

Earning this distinction requires leadership, initiative, and a strong commitment to community service. These young women have truly made a positive impact in our community.

It is a pleasure to present the Canada Cord to:

1. Isabelle McDonald
2. Holly O'Reilly
3. Claire Leger

Ranger Community Service Award

Finally, we recognize the Ranger Community Service Award.

This award honours exceptional volunteerism and community involvement. Through her work with youth in the arts community, this recipient has made a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

It is my privilege to present this award to:

1. Alina (A-LEAN-A) Corrigan

Closing Remarks

Congratulations to all of tonight's recipients. You should be very proud of your accomplishments.

Thank you to the leaders and families for your ongoing support. Riverview is stronger because of young leaders like you, and we look forward to all you will achieve in the future.

Thank you.
